Family fun at Moneymore

The South Londonderry Twelfth of July demonstration will be held in Moneymore. Taking in seven surrounding Districts - Ballyronan, Castledawson, Garvagh, Kilrea, Magherafelt, Tamlaght O'Crilly, Tobermore and the host District Moneymore - this will certainly be a family orientated Twelfth of July. With almost 50 bands and lodges due to take part in the parade, spectators are in for a great spectacle of music and sights, from accordion, flute, pipe bands and even a few Lambeg drums. One Ladies' lodge and a number of Junior lodges will also be participating. All District Lodges will assemble on the Desertmartin Road from 10.30am in a field opposite the junction with the Tulnagee Road and will move off in district order to the Demonstration Field on the

Moneyhaw Road. Moneymore District Lodge will lead the parade with the route being Desertmartin Road, station Road, Lawford Street, High Street, Stonard Street, Bridger Street, Moneyhaw Road. All lodges are to be in the Demonstration Field by 1pm as the Religious Service will commence at 2pm Sharp. The procession will depart the Demonstration Field at

3.30pm via Moneyhaw Road, Bridger Street, Stonard Street, High Street, Smith Street and Magherafelt Road to the buses parked on the hard shoulders. The procession will be led by Kilrea District LOL No. 5 then Tamlaght O'Crilly District LOL No. 9, Garvagh District LOL No. 4, Tobermore District LOL No. 11, Castledawson District LOL No. 1, Magherafelt District LOL No. 3, Ballyronan District LOL No. 7 and Moneymore

District LOL No. 10. Moneymore District Lodge will parade Northland Drive, Northland Road, Lawford Street, High Street, Stonard Street or Conyngham Street to disperse. A tattoo has been organised for Tuesday, 9th July at 7.30pm in the grounds of Moneymore Recreation Centre involving all the bands in the district, highland dancers and the Force (drum-major team).

The County Londonderry Twelfth Celebrations will be held in Moneymore this year. In 2023, the parade was hosted in Magherafelt. Pictures courtesy of Churchfield Photography.
