

Parade starts: 12 noon.
On parade: 11 lodges, 9 bands and lambegs.
Return parade: 4pm.

Braid Twelfth returns to Broughshane

The Braid Twelfth of July celebrations will be held in Broughshane for the second year in a row. This time it is the turn of Buckna LOL 489 to host the celebrations.

The parade, which will feature two sets of Lambeg Drums and nine bands, will start at Beechvale, Broughshane at 12noon.

It will make its way down Raceview Road and Main Street to the Carnlough Road, where it will turn back and return along Main Street before turning onto Knockan Road to the Community Centre, which provides the venue for the demonstration field.

Platform proceedings will start at around 2.30pm.

The speakers on the day will be Bro. Tom Elliott UUP MLA and the religious service will be led by Bro. Rev. David Bissett, Deputy County Grand Chaplain.

There will be food, refreshments and entertainment for children in the field. Following the platform proceedings, the parade will reform at 4pm to return to Beechvale.

Broughshane village sits in the Braid and lodges participating in the Twelfth here are Buckna, Pollee, Broughshane, Teenies, Jamison's Trues Blues Skerry), Aughafatten, Glenarm, Carnlough, Carnalbana, Lisnamurrican and Ballygelly.

The Braid Twelfth will return to the village of Broughshane. This year it is Buckna LOL 489 who have the honour of hosting the celebrations. Pictures courtesy of McAuley Multimedia

BROUGHSHANE

1

3

2

1 Parade Start Point

2 Field

3 Parade Dispersal Point

P Car Parking

Family Activities

Stalls

Food and Catering

First Aid

Toilets