

Design Your Own Medal

Design a medal to remember a hero or event of the past or the present. Your design might relate to World War I, World War II or maybe some other event in history that is important to you and your family.